A Reader Speaks Out on Black Lives Matter!!! Statues Don’t Matter Where were the Shelby BLM People when my daughter was assaulted and called the N-Word??? —Sitting at home thinking, “not my kid-NOT my Problem!!!”

A new comment came to me on my article “Lots of Hate, Anger, Misconceptions, Misunderstandings, Lies and Deceptions Surrounding the July 7, 2020 Commissioners Meeting!!! Regarding Confederate Soldiers Memorial Monuments!!! CC Commissioners have their heads in the sand!!”

This well written comment deserves lots of attention!!

The comments states”

> Whether the statues stays or goes, Hate will still be in people’s heart. Racism will still happen.

> Where were these Cleveland County BLM people at when MY daughter as well as other black kids were assaulted and called the N-word and punished for defending themselves. Where were they?

Where are they with the injustices in our School system against minorities? I'm going to tell you. Sitting at home with the "not my child, not my problem" attitude. Not to mention that (School Board Members) Miller, Hooker, and Glover are supporting the BLM movement in Shelby.

How can they support the BLM people in Shelby but can't support the black kids in the school system that they are board members of!! I'll answer that for you. It's election time! They don't care about Black Lives,They care about the black vote!

I could say a lot more but I would rather speak to you in person Mr. Williams. You see they don't like people like us who speak the truth and call them on their crap. I just can't be a sheep following the wolf disguised as a sheep.

Editor's Note: You can call me (Robert A. Williams) at 704-538-8257 or email me at raw@shelby.net anytime. I am not afraid of the big bad wolves in Cleveland County. The TRUTH always chases them away from me.

Anybody else that wants to share their experiences or share their discussion is also welcome to contact me. Even the BLM people and their critics in the Black community. And there are critics. Which the Massas’ are trying to play-off, one against the other.
