

Early Voting Starts Today—Democrat Primary Election!!! –Report by Robert A. Williams

Folks, Early Voting starts today for the 2017 Democrat Primary Election for the Cleveland County School Board. Typically we always advise voters to vote on Election Day, September 12, 2017. But if you're not around on Election Day, this early voting period is a good time to make sure your vote gets counted. Remember, a vote that is not cast will not be counted.

Also, if you don't know anything much about the democrat candidates, scroll on back a few articles and read about my articles regarding the six Democrat candidates and also my account of the TEA Party Forum a few days ago. The Forum that Phillip "Bully" Glover, Tommy Greene and Guy Suttle refused to attend.

Also, your convenience, I am attaching a marked-up sample ballot that shows our recommendations.

Be sure you get out to vote during this early voting period or for sure on Election Day, September 12, 2017. The education of your children is at stake.

[gview
file="http://citizensforgoodgovernment.org/online/wp-content/uploads/2017/08/Marked-up-Sample-Ballot-School-Board-2017.pdf"]