Un-American Community College Board of Trustees Refuse to Recite the Pledge of Allegiance at their Board Meetings!!! Report by Robert A. Williams

The Cleveland Community College Board of Trustees are holding their first meeting in 2018 on January 9, 2018 at 12 noon. After an official citizens reminder last year that they are not reciting the Pledge of Allegiance at their meeting and a suggestion that they should do so, the Un-American CCC BoT remains adamant and continues to refuse to recite the Pledge as shown on their meeting agenda.

Folks, I don’t know about you but I don’t have much sympathy (or faith) for or in this gridlocked Board nor any individual board member that refuses to put up the Flag of the United States of America and recite the Pledge of Allegiance at their official meetings. Especially since some on this CCC BoT are elected officials sworn to uphold the laws of NC and the USA.

Stay tuned for my next article about this meeting for this and other information about the dysfunctional leadership at Cleveland Community College and how they operate.
