Democrats Lying about not supporting Nancy Pelosi??!!! Editorial by Robert A. Williams

Everybody that watches TV in Cleveland County has seen the ads by Democrats Dan McCready and Kathy Manning that they will not support Nancy Pelosi for Speaker of the House if they win their elections and take back the US House. Just like Alabama Democrat Senate Candidate Doug Jones recently said when he was running in a special election for Senator of Alabama against Judge Roy Moore. Jones said he was conservative and would not support Democrat Party Leadership if he won. All the while the Democrats were accusing Republican Roy Moore of dating younger women 40 years ago when Moore too was a young man.

So, the duped women and other voters in Alabama voted for Doug Jones and one of the very first things Jones did was vote against confirming Brett Kavanaugh for the Supreme Court. Just like his Democrat Party leadership told him to do. Jones lied from start to finish.

Will the low information voters in North Carolina also be duped and believe Dan McCready and Kathy Manning? The answer is probably YES. That is a no brainer. That is what low information and uninformed liberal “mob” voters do when they are duped-stupid things. Otherwise, they wouldn’t be low information and uninformed voters who can’t figure out the political lies being told.

You might say Hey! Dan McCreedy and Kathy Manning are not running in Cleveland County, so why do I care? Or YOU!!! Well, we do have Democrats liberals running against Patrick McHenry, Tim Moore, Kelly Hastings, Judges, etc. telling their tall tales. And the Early Voting going on right now has a much larger than normal turnout. You have to figure the low information uninformed “mob” voters are turning out.

Therefore the answer to all this mob madness is clear. All smart and sane voters who pay attention to what is going on in Cleveland County had better wise up and turn out on Election Day or not turn out at all. And Kiss all our tax cuts, guns and such good-bye.
