COVID Outbreak Reported in Cleveland County Jail!!! Source Report by Robert A. Williams

Trusted sources report that there is a COVID outbreak in the Cleveland County Jail. That is the report and I have had no indications of how many have been infected or the severity. Or if any inmates or staff have been hospitalized or have died. Hopefully none.

I will forward any updates that I receive from sources or County Officials.