

Veracious Woman with Evidence Speaks OUT: Robert Queen, Dennis Bailey and Kevin Whisnant going to the Doghouse-Or Homeless!!! Comment shared by Robert A. Williams

Just my 2 cents on the letter. (Robert Queen to Danny Blanton)

Every-time Danny has brought anything to the board, he gets shut down or they say they will look into it and never do. Also, the public would rather have a board member that is honest with them than a board member who goes along with the others to get along. You see the problem with the board now is so many see wrong doings and know about the wrong doings, coverups and corruption, yet they sit on their asses.

We need more like Danny. He truly stands up for what's right. He's not going to shut up and pretend everything is alright because King Queen wants him too.

Queen needs to worry about the affair he had on his wife a couple years ago instead of worrying about Danny: who we all know is a straight up honest board member that cares more about the children and employees than all of those Demon-rats and RINOs put together.

also, it's best (Dennis) Bailey and (Kevin) Whisnant back off before their wives get some information with proof that could have them in the dog house or better yet, homeless.

Yours Truly,

A Veracious Woman (with enough evidence to shut a lot of the good ole boys down.)

Editor's Note: I know about the "stuff" on Robert Queen and have seen "sign" with my own two eyes. I have previously NOT exposed Luke because sordid affairs are not something I write about unless there is an "involvement" with governmental "affairs" (pardon the pun). I discovered the "leap" into governmental affairs in the minutes of the March 14, 2022 School Board Meeting. Apparently slipped into the minutes by the School Board Secretary-Dr. Stephen Fisher. To cover his own ass or to blackmail Queen, sufficient to keep his job as well as his contract and pay increases. More on that later. And soon!

Note that the identity of the Veracious Woman is being protected for obvious reasons.
