Abbie Speaks out: Where are the Black Leaders??? Comments on Article: “Rumble in the Jungle” Big Brawl at Shelby July 4th Celebration!! Most Black leaders just pretend to be leaders!! Comment and commentary forwarded to all by Robert A.

Robert A. notes that the Name “Abigail” was the name of a wise woman in the Biblical book of Proverbs. So, I have named this wise source “Abbie” because of her wise comment.

> Abbie writes the following comment on Robert A’s article titled “Rumble in the Jungle” – Big Brawl at Shelby’s July Fourth Celebration.”
> These black leaders don’t care about anyone but themselves and what gets them “good” attention from the white folk. They sure as hell don’t care about our black/brown students that are discriminated against daily in CCS.
>
> They get mad when a white woman who has brown children calls them out and she herself stands up for the black children that are continuously being overlooked, unless; of course, they are superstar athletes.
> Where are the black leaders that really care? Not the ones that pretend!!

Robert A says recent history confirms Abbie’s comment 1,000%.
