

Chloe Comments About Kevin Whisnant being violated by Kevin “Mad Dog” Gordon and his Gestapo Tax Collectors!!

Comments forwarded and predictions made by Robert A

Chloe says:

It's called Karma.

Kevin Whisnant can't go out here doing all his dirty deeds and think he's untouchable. This is what happens when you dance with the devil. While I agree this isn't right. You have to be careful who you do wrong to. You never know who the people you wronged know or who they are related to. That's why you should always put out good Karma. Maybe he should stop dancing with the devil before Karma comes full force.

Editor's Note: Chloe has once again provided good solid advice that Kevin Whisnant and everybody else should be following.

Remember, this is Cleveland County and who you know and who you are related to can and does make a difference in how you are treated. Kevin Whisnant just got himself reminded of that the hard way. And, you can be sure that MAD DOG Gordon will mistreat anybody that doesn't kiss his ass. Or try to anyway.

Using any political dirty trick that he can think of. However, this Karma thing is very likely to have a turn toward Mad Dog Gordon himself. Probably sooner than later. His trespassing on at least 500 families' properties have most certainly made some enemies against Mad Dog and his high-handed ways. Mad Dog is destined to be a one term commissioner. If that long. Election time in 2024 and Mad Dog will be long gone. Kevin Whisnant may be gone from the CCGOP leadership even sooner than that.