

SARAH Speaks: School Board is where real domestic terrorists are!!!

Comment/Opinion forwarded by Robert A

Our superintendent and our school board have lost control of our schools and our students. It's time that the parents and grandparents take our schools back!!

There is so much evil on that school board. They are too busy bickering with each other, getting kick-backs from back door deals, and so worried about what the good Danny B and Ronnie G are doing that the kids are no more than political pawns.

This county is waking up and if they think these fights are bad, just wait until more and more parents and CC citizens start showing up to these board meetings demanding change and standing up against those school board bullies.

The CCS board is where the real domestic terrorists are!

Editor's Note: The School Board Safety Committee meets tomorrow, Tuesday, January 31, 2023 at the CCS Central Offices at 12:00 PM. This might be the best opportunity for parents and grandparents to START demanding change and stand up to the School Board bullies. Come on out and see for yourselves how the real domestic terrorists operate.
