

Breaking News - Second Assassination Attempt Against President Trump!!

Folks, there has been a second attempt to assassinate President Donald Trump at around 1:30 this afternoon (September 15, 2024) at his golf course down in Florida. The alleged suspect was hiding in shrubbery around the golf course. A Secret Service Agent saw the AK-47 muzzle sticking out of the shrubbery and that was pointing toward President Trump, and fired at the apparent assassin. Thus, causing the assassin to drop the weapon and run away. A close-by witness heard the gun shots, saw the alleged assassin running away, took his picture as well as his escape vehicle license plate. Thus, allowing the Florida State Officials to spot the vehicle and arrest the driver out on I-95. The alleged assassin has been preliminarily identified as Ryan Routh. President Joe Biden and VP Kamala Harris have stated that they are glad that President Trump is safe, despite both calling President Trump the greatest danger to Democracy in the USA.

Folks, for your convenience, this attached Associated Press, WBT article appears to be the latest and most accurate account of this incident that is available right now. Robert A is certain that more news will be soon coming out from all directions.

Robert A also advises that no one believe any articles or information put out on Facebook by the bunch of Cleveland County False Rumor Mongers who have totally libeled innocent and well thought of citizens of Cleveland County, NC in the Asha Degree Disappearance case. Which is sure to fire off again early this coming Monday morning when Attorney David Teddy gets to his office. Or the Courthouse. Whichever comes first.
